

The complete sorted weight multiset is identical in both panels; only its assignment to positions changes.
The paired change in the target-answer margin measures the effect.